Our Attorney-at-Law, Ljubica Tomić, has been included in the List of Arbitrators of the Permanent Elected Court (Arbitration) at the Serbian Chamber of Commerce

We are pleased to announce that our Attorney-at-Law, Ljubica Tomić, has been included in the List of Arbitrators of the Permanent Elected Court (Arbitration) at the Serbian Chamber of Commerce. (<http://www.pks.rs/ONama.aspx?id=147&p=3&>)

The Permanent Elected Court (Arbitration) is a permanent arbitral institution attached to the Serbian Chamber of Commerce. The Court may adjudicate domestic disputes in commercial and other property law matters between companies and other legal entities, based on their agreement to accept its jurisdiction.

The Court issues an award based on the applicable law, legal regulations, codices, agreements and customs. It may also render the award based on equity and good conscience (ex aequo et bono) but only where the parties have explicitly agreed so.

The arbitral award is final and may not be appealed. It has the legal effect of a final court judgment and is enforced in accordance with the legal provisions governing enforcement procedure.

In view of the cost-effectiveness and efficiency of arbitral proceedings, it is worth considering agreeing on arbitration process for dispute resolution in business transactions.
